Dear Ms. Lamb,

Thank you for the courtesy copy of the upcoming witness order. It is of great assistance. We note that there are certain experts and witnesses who the Chamber has decided to hear but the Chamber is still ascertaining their availability. We wish to stress that it is very important that we have as much notice as possible before these experts and witnesses are called. We consider a minimum of 30 days notice for experts would be sufficient for our preparation. For new experts not currently on the Trial Chamber's list, we consider that at least 45 days advance notice would be appropriate. Such advance notice will allow all the parties to be prepared in order to make the most effective use of the experts' time in court.

Sincerely,

Subject: Advance courtesy copy of scheduling and witness , expert and Civil Party memorandum for next session

Dear parties,

As indicated in this morning's informal TMM, attached is an advance courtesy copy of the Trial Chamber's memorandum outlining order of call and other scheduling issues .

We envisage that the memorandum will be filed in all languages early next week .

Have a nice weekend.

Best regards,
Susan
